MYRTLE BEACH TRIP RECAP

APRIL 8-12, 2019 • An AMAZING Trip!

We had a wonderful visit to Myrtle Beach! Where did the days go? We travelled with the nicest group of people; everyone was so happy, polite, helpful and courteous ... we all made a lot of new friends!

Our bus driver was adorable, everyone wanted to adopt him and take him home! Diamond Tours are fantastic trips, so organized, things just flow so smoothly. Our itinerary included a visit to a working farm, museums, quaint shopping areas, gift shops and restaurants. And of course great shows; we saw some fantastic entertainment, a magic show and maybe best of all comedy. We didn't have to drive to places we are not familiar with, we didn't have to fight city traffic. Our stops were planned and there was always someone there to greet us and tell us where to go. We had the comfort and security of knowing people were watching out for each other yet respecting our independence. So many of us are widows or widowers and don't like to travel alone, we have the solution! Join us next time, forget about those aches and pains, they will still be there when you return but you will have had an amazing experience for a few wonderful days.

SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT VITAS HEALTHCARE

Hospice Care: What to expect when your loved one is at home

A main concern for most people faced with terminal illness is whether they'll be able to die wherever they call "home." Hospice care helps eliminate that worry, making it possible for people to spend their final moments of life in their preferred surroundings.

By definition, hospice is intended to help terminally ill people remain comfortable during the last six months of their lives. The care can be administered at the patient's home, hospice inpatient units as well as hospitals, nursing homes and assisted living communities or residential care facilities.

When a loved one is receiving hospice care at home, these are the questions hospice providers are often asked:

• How will pain be managed? Hospice is an end-of-life care option tailored to the needs of each patient and family. It includes expert pain management, but also goes beyond medical care, by providing emotional and spiritual support. The care is provided by interdisciplinary teams of palliative care experts, including physicians, nurses, home health aides, social workers, chaplains, bereavement specialists and volunteers.

• If the patient prefers to remain at home, what kind of assistance and in-home care will be available? Routine home care is available in accordance to the patient's individualized plan of care. Continuous care, during a brief period of crisis, can be available for up to 24 hours a day. When patients or family members have questions or concerns after business hours, they can often get immediate answers and help by calling an after-hours service.

• What does hospice care cost? Does insurance cover it? Medicare pays for hospice services. Many states have established Medicaid coverage for hospice, and almost all private insurers and managed care plans provide coverage for hospice care as well.

For more information about hospice care or your end-of-life care options, call VITAS Healthcare at 321-751-6671 or visit www.VITAS.com/Florida

CLUB INFORMATION & COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

HOSPITALITY TEAM: Here's a way to help your club with little commitment. The 55+ Club offers 5 to 6 social events for the year Sept.-April. Each event is planned by our Social Chairpersons, but they also need assistance the day of the event, so we are putting together a "Hospitality Team" that will be the "busy bees" on the day of event with setting the tables, help with decorations, food prep and sometimes serving. After the event, help with clean up. All the planning will be done, we just need a few extra hands to assist. Remember, it takes a village! If you can assist us please contact Louise S. at 321/202-7337 or louinthesun@cfl.rr.com

GARDEN GROUP: The garden bed located at the tennis court area off of DeSoto is moving along. Unfortunately the club was inadvertently assigned the wrong area and spent time cleaning and weeding only to find out they were assigned the wrong bed! They have been assigned #13 and they've decided that's going to be a lucky number!! So back to square one with weeding etc. If you are available, PLEASE DO go over to the bed and weed. Even though it has been weeded, we know more weeds will pop back up and any additional pulling will help. It's a nice little area tucked back in the south east section with a picnic table in the shade, so bring your lunch.

In the future Gene would like to plan a trip to a local garden, but haven't decided where and when. Come join them at the meetings on the second Mondays at 11:00am at the DRS Center. Call him for summer meeting location, and please, bring a friend. Gene also can share some good information about container gardening! Contact Gene at 321/773-4647 jomagelo@aol.com

WALKING will resume Tues. September 3rd from 8:00am to 9:30am with Jean's extra help and will only be available on Tuesdays and Thursdays until Gigie returns mid-November. We will announce when walking resumes on Wednesdays. THANK YOU to Jean Iorio and Gigie Kunigonis for continuing to assist with this activity.

EVENTS - Phyllis and Marianne are planning several entertaining events for 2019 and 2020. Make a note of these dates and more information will follow. New Member Reception - Sept. 20th; Fall Fest - Oct 24th and Annual Meeting and Holiday Luncheon - Dec. 12th.

DAY TRIP RECAP

Club members enjoyed a day trip to Isle of Capri on May 21st with bingo on the bus and 2 great movies on the way there and back. They arrived before lunch, gambled a bit and then enjoyed a delicious buffet. Don't miss out on the fun & friends by joining them for future trips!

Capone's Dinner Theatre, Sept. 19, 2019. The cost is $58pp and includes a 1:00pm matinee, buffet with carving station, all you can drink (including alcohol) dessert, show and

The bus departs the DRS Community Center at 10:30am and returns at approx. 6:30pm. Drop off checks only – payable to "Casino Connections" at the DRS Community Center by September 9th. "BETWEEN THE LINES", 55+ BOOK CLUB

The book club had a great turn out for their last meeting on May 1st before breaking for the summer. Their guest speaker was club member, Grace Michaelson, author of the book, "The Skirl of the Pipes". Grace is 94 years young and has published this book as a goal in life of something that she has always dreamed of doing. Proving you are never too old to follow your dream! Also, at this meeting the members of the Book Club decided to name their group "Between the Lines - "55+ Book Club". Trudy Hughes made a Linzer Torte that was mentioned in the book that they were discussing, The Huntress. The group will resume September 4th at the DRS Community Center.

MEMBERSHIP DUES INCREASE

Yearly 55+ Club dues will increase to $10 for 2020. Like everything else, costs have increased and this raise is necessary. In 2001 when this club started dues were $5!! We've always strived to keep costs low and we are proud have been able to continue that for many years. Renewal begins in September, but you are welcome to pay your 2020 dues anytime.
